Further Placements Confirmed

Congratulations to the following two third year students, who have secured External Placement positions as noted for session 2018-2019. Together with the lists in previous Newsletters, this takes the total so far to 18.

Sarah McKinney  Institute of Porous Solids (Paris, France)
Freya Nobbs  Institute of Porous Solids (Paris, France)

School of Chemistry Colloquia

Synthesis Seminar
Tuesday 20th, 1.00 pm, Lecture Theatre B
Niall Anderson (GlaxoSmithKline) – Proteolysis Targeting Chimera: A New Frontier in Medicinal Chemistry

EaStCHEM Colloquium
Wednesday 21st, 3.30 pm, Lecture Theatre C
Dr Rebecca Goss (St Andrews) – Blending Synthetic Chemistry with Synthetic Biology in vivo to enable Access to New to Nature Natural Products

External Colloquia

British Science Association, Tayside & Fife Branch
50th Anniversary Public Lecture Series
Wednesday 21st, 7.00 pm, D’Arcy Thompson Lecture Theatre, Tower Building, Dundee University
Professor Colin Palmer (Ninewells Hospital and Medical School) – The Human Genome Project: Where are we now?

Public Lunchtime Lecture
Friday 23rd, 1.00 pm, Byre Theatre
Professor Eleanor Riley (Roslin Institute, University of Edinburgh) – Combatting Malaria

The talk is free, but ticketed. Tickets are available from the Byre Box Office online, via telephone (01334 475000) or email (byreboxoffice@st-andrews.ac.uk). All university students and staff, as well as members of the public, are invited to attend.

New Faces

David Cain comes from Kent and completed an MChem at Heriot Watt University in 2016. He then started PhD work with AJBW at Strathclyde and transferred here in January. He has interests in playing football and squash, listening to music and watching TV.

Matthew Ashford comes from Caldicot in Wales and completed an MChem at the University of Cardiff last summer. He then started PhD work with AJBW and moved here in January. He is interested in reading and running.